

PROSE ON PAROS

A writing retreat with Judy Lev

April 14-20, 2026 - Paros, Greece

Join us in the tranquil ambience of Paros, one of the most beautiful of the Greek Cycladic Islands, for an intimate and exhilarating week of writing at the Tao's Center (www.taos-greece.com).

This year's subject is SCENES. Readers want to see what your characters see, hear, smell and taste, and lose themselves in your story. In Paros, we'll learn from examples in both fiction and non-fiction by deconstructing scenes, writing our own, and getting feedback.

Judy Lev (www.judylev.com) will lead the retreat that will include five morning sessions, four afternoon workshops and a Shabbat reading.

COSTS

€1,185 shared room \ €1,320 single room

Includes 8-12 participants, single or shared accommodation, healthy breakfast and lunch daily, first night dinner at Taos. Does not include flights, transportation and car rental.
